
The Association

Founded in 2003, “La Grande Famille de Procida & Ischia” is a non profit French association that gathers together the descendants of this region of Southern Italy. In fact, since the 19th century, a large part of the Italian migrants were coming from the islands of the Naples area. Fishermen, tradesman or farmers, they populated the French North Africa and the United States, others went to France, Argentina or Australia. Today their descendants are Italian, French, American, Argentinean, etc...

Initially, thanks to their digitalization and computerization, the Association's main objective was the preservation of the archives of the islands of Procida and Ischia.

Starting from 2013, our mission has doubled, officializing a new cultural dimension in order to promote the tourism of the islands together with the preservation of the historical, cultural and natural heritage and reinforcing the attachment to our roots.

The islands of Procida and Ischia belong to the Flegrean islands, located in the north of the bay of Naples. They are part of the Flegrean Fields of which the volcanic activity was at the origin of these islands.

Procida is a cut shaped island of 4,1 km² and includes the neighboring small island of Vivara, today a natural reserve. The island features fishing ports, marina, cliffs, creeks and sandy beaches. The island peaks at 91 meters with the medieval village of Terra Murata, a fortified place that includes the former Spanish castle reconverted into a prison by the Bourbons and the Saint-Michael Abbey.

Ischia is a volcanic island of 47 km² formed by the lavas of the Epomeo that peaks at 780 meters and of which the eruptions went on until the 14th century. The island of Ischia benefits from a rich and varied agriculture, numerous thermal stations and attracts the tourists looking for relaxation and walk trips in magnificent landscape.

Preserving and Understanding our Origins

Since 2003, the Association has among its objectives the preservation of the archives of the islands of Procida, Ischia and Ponza. Thanks to its activities of digitalization and computerization, members can find their ancestors easily, obtain a digital copy of the documents telling their life (birth, marriage, death, censuses, abandonment, maritime registrations in Algeria, etc.). They may also post messages on the members forum, attend workshops and events organized by the Association including our General Meeting held in Italy every two years, and take advantage of a booking service for your future holidays in Procida and Ischia.
