Improving data protection and security

Among the actions we have to implement out following the audit carried out at the end of 2014, the following two main remediation action have been finalized in January:

The General Conditions of Use (CGU) for our web site are now available online:

- The CGU are available online from our institutional web site as well as our search engine, together with the Statutes of the Association.
- Each member must first accept them in order to be able to use the search engine and our genealogical services.
- The date of acceptance of the CGU is recorded and you may have to accept them again in the future in case of amendments brought to this document.
- When renewing your membership, you will be asked to accept them again too.

Voluntary work and data privacy contract update:

- A new contract has been sent to all past and present voluntary workers and must be signed and returned to the Association.
- Today 34 contracts out of 44 have been received and archived.

Additional actions will be carried out in the future on order to ensure legal compliance with the use of technologies, prevent risks and respond to modern life requirements.

Thank you for your attention.

Evolution of our web site

Since the beginning of the year, our new engine for searching and visualizing records has been updated constantly, to correct and improve the new features deployed last year and prepare new ones to come.

Also, you have been able to read the General Conditions of Use (CGU) for our web site, important and mandatory as highlighted during the audit carried out last November to assess data privacy and protection of our digital work.

The main improvements you will note are:

- The list of registers, the received records, the cousins and the statistics now take into account correctly the Maritimes archives.
- Tuning of the record viewer and the ordering features.
- The images of the marriage registers of the Town of Procida are now online.

More work ongoing...

Reminder of the rules when ordering records

As mentioned in the user's guide, available on the web site, there are 2 basic rules when ordering records:

- The system takes into account a maximum number of records per order [10 records].
- The system does not allow you to order again if the time interval since your last order is lower than [7 days].

Therefore you may place an order every 7 days containing up to 10 records or documents. However nothing prevents you to keep searching and adding new records to your basket. Only the first 10 items will be ordered when you will validate your basket.

Important reminder:

According to our statutes and also to not distort the automatic cousin detection process, any record ordered must be related to your personal genealogy, and NOT for someone else.

Thank you.

New indexes available

Please find below the list of new and updated indexes that have been imported in our database:

Archive	Registers
PROCIDA Comune [1810-1899]	N63 (René BARONE) N65 (Jean-Marie DUFOUR) N68 (Marc LOROTTE)
	All marriage registers are now available online
CASAMICCIOLA Santa Maria Maddalena	D12 (Carole GENZANO)

Our projects with FamilySearch

We are still waiting for FamilySearch to send us the results of our indexing projects.

Last year we completed the indexation of the Town of Barano and Serrara Fontana.

Here is the last status received from FamilySearch:

Barano has still a file being audited. I have asked to get Serrara Fontana published, currently planned on the week starting 15 February. Barano will probably be ready in April.

As soon as we will receive the databases, I will be able to process and convert the data to import it into our search engine.

Then you will be able to search through this data and obtain the direct link to the image of the record on FamilySearch's web site, made visible on our web site!

Thank you for your patience.
